Country Fair '77 IN MARION

It's Fair time! Once again it is time for that fun event sponsored by the First Congregational Church of Marion; the annual summer fair. This year's fair is "Country Fair 77"--the theme being that of an old-fashioned country fair.

There are many attractions being offered for all ages; young, old, and in-between. There will be such offerings for the adults as beautiful handmade articles on the sewing and crafts table, used books of all types, a great assortment on the white elephant table, many delicious home-baked goods, jewelry, imports, plants and post office mystery surprises. There will also be available a place on the fair grounds where you may bring your own pieces of furniture for repair by experts. Our country store will have its tempting array of homemade candies, fresh cheese and much more! Our well known Chapel Cafe will again be serving its always popular lobster rolls,

MUSEUM NEWS

At 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday, the 27th, the Mattapoisett Bicentennial slides will be shown. This grouping features the British attack, horse show, and other events.

This is the final week of the excellent exhibit of Oscar St. Jacques' fine crafted clocks, furniture, and carvings.

The special exhibit for August will be "China Tea Services". In the whaling era and soon after many fine sets of china found their way into Mattapoisett homes and they have been cherished through each generation.

Fine examples of patterns such as Rose Medallion, Chelsea, Lusters, Gaudy Welsh, and many others will be exhibited. These sets are a delight with their lovely array of colors and rich designs. A really grand era!

This exhibit will be a fine opportunity to view so many fine tea sets.

Council on Aging

MATTAPOISETT

On Thursday, July 21st, a trip by minibus was taken by eight Seniors, first to the Tremont Nail Factory in Wareham and then to the Edaville Railroad in South Carver. We found the Nail Factory unexpectedly closed to visitors (for alterations), but enjoyed their Country Store. The ride on the Edaville Railroad was most enjoyable and the chicken barbecue more than most of us could eat. After visiting the Museum, we called it a day. It was a good trip in spite of the 90+ degrees of heat.

There is no trip on July 28th, as the Cumberland Farms trip was cancelled because they no longer sponsor trips for visitors. The following trips are scheduled for August: Tuesday, August 2nd, Horseneck Beach, Westport Point and Harbor (take a bathing suit and a picnic lunch); Tuesday, August 9th, Worcester Downtown Mall (all enclosed and air conditioned and one of the largest); we will buy our lunches and then visit other points of interest in Worcester; August 16, no trip; Wednesday, August 24th, a trip to Martha's Vineyard for those who have not been (watch Presto for details); Tuesday, August 30th, Colt Park, Bristol, Rhode Island, a beautiful park and picnic grounds (bring your lunch).

Please note the above change in days for trips. During August Thursdays will be Mall days.

We need volunteers to man the Council on Aging telephone Monday and Wednesday from 10:00 to 12:00 Noon. Call Sandra Perkins (tel. 758-2786) if you wish to help out.

BOOKMARK CONTEST

Along with the pictures you are invited to design a new bookmark for the Mattapoisett Public Library. The library is looking for a bookmark that will have the library hours printed on one side and they would like you to design the other side. It should be attractive and meaningful to the library and Mattapoisett. They will be judged and the winning design will be the official library bookmark for the year.

Rules for bookmark design: size 4 1/2" x 14 1/2" (design to be reduced); white poster paper; black ink, felt tipped pen-pencil.

There are only three weeks before the show so we hope all will get busy. Let's see lots of pictures and bookmarks from our budding artists.

Information will be available at the Museum and the Heritage Arts Store.

If you haven't joined our King Kong summer reading program, it's not too late. If you can read 25 books by August 31st, you can help King Kong reach the top of the Empire State Building.

What do you think King Kong really looks like? If you can draw or paint or make your own version of King Kong out of clay (or anything else you can think of), bring it to the library. We'll display it during the month of August. The art will be judged and the winners will be announced on August 31st at our party to celebrate the end of the summer reading program. (Please note --only participants in the summer reading program can enter the art contest!)

MARION ART CENTER
ARTS FESTIVAL - AUGUST 5th & 6th

The annual Sidewalk Art Show and Sale will be held at the Marion Art Center on August 5th and 6th this year from 10:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. Paintings, sculpture, crafts, photography, and prints will be exhibited in the auditorium and outside in the yard and on the grounds of the new bicentennial park. An added feature to the show this year will be entertainment in the performing arts: music and dance; as well as demonstrations of various crafts. There will also be refreshments and food for sale. Raffle tickets will be sold on some large items donated by local merchants.

The craftsmen demonstrating are from around the world. The international theme will be highlighted by caligraphy by Dr. Shaw, a specialist in Chinese history and culture. Born in Naking, China, Dr. Shaw knows a great deal about ancient arts of China including some of the martial arts which, like caligraphy, reflect the religion and philosophy of this unique civilization.

Luice Moncevitz McCormack is a specialist in Russian batik. This unusual art form consists of using wax and natural dyes to decorate eggs. One usually associates batik with colored pieces of material, but in Russia, batik was only done on eggs. The designs are deeply rooted in the Greek Orthodox religion, and Mrs. McCormack's works of art are blessed by the church every Easter. An art teacher in Mattapoisett, Luice is a very articulate lady whose demonstrations are educational and entertaining.

A demonstration of the evolution of weaving will be set up on the lawn and will include spinning, dyeing, and

We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "'Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it is new customers we are looking for.

Little League

ALL STAR BASEBALL

In the first game of the Acushnet All Star Tournament the Mattapoisett All Stars defeated the Marion All Stars 16-3. In the second game they defeated Acushnet All Stars 9-0. Billy Haymaker pitched a 1-hitter and Steve Baggarly had a grand slam and a home run. In an exciting game the Dartmouth All Stars who were trailing most of the game, beat Mattapoisett 6-5. There were home runs by Chris Riley and Steve Baggarly.

LITTLE LEAGUE JUNIOR ALL STAR BASEBALL

On July 16 the Mattapoisett Junior All Stars played their first game against East Bridgewater. It was a close battle from the first pitch to the last. East Bridgewater took the lead in the 3rd inning by scoring 2 runs. Mattapoisett was frustrated up until the bottom half of the 5th inning. With 2 outs and men on 2nd and 3rd, Skip Harris stayed alive by fouling off 2 pitches with a full count on him; he then lashed a double to left center scoring 2 runs to tie the game. Spencer Blasdale then singled what proved Standouts in the game were Spencer Blasdale, winning pitcher in relief and game winning hit, Chris Hilley 3 for 3, and Skip Harris, the game tying double; and Brendan MacDonald, 2 doubles.

On July 17 Mattapoisett met Stoughton's 10 year olds. This game was dominated by a fine pitching duel between Shawn Mc Cabe of Mattapoisett and Scott Cunningham of Stoughton. Mattapoisett took a 1-0 lead in the second inning due to the lack of control by Cunningham. In the third inning Stoughton tied the ball game 1-1. Mattapoisett scored 2 more runs in the bottom of the 3rd and took a 3-1 lead. In the 4th Stoughton scored one more run on a double and a single but that was as close as they could get to a fired up Mattapoisett "9". In the 3rd inning Joey Rocha almost put the game out of reach by coming within 2 feet of a grand slam home run. Standouts in the game were Chris Carvalho with a great defensive

"CYRANO DE BERGERAC" AT SMU

For the first time since Southeastern Massachusetts University's outdoor amphitheatre was built several years ago, it will echo to the voices of actors when the SMU Theatre Company presents Edmond Rostand's classic, "Cyrano de Bergerac" on August 4, 5, 6 and 7.

There is no curtain to go up, but spotlights will go on and actors will step on stage at 8:30 P.M. for this inaugural use of the amphitheatre for a fully-staged theatrical production.

"Cyrano", performed under the stars and a waning moon, is directed by Angus Bailey.

The cast includes Michael Powers as Cyrano, Barry Smith as Christian de Neuvillette, Sally Jones as Roxane, and Mark Lima as Ragueneau.

Scenic designer is Frank Kiman; assistant designer, Mark Conley; master carpenter, Gary Hartwell; and business manager, Norman Byron.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling the SMU Theatre Company, extension 765.

In case of rain, performances will be scheduled for the same days the following week.

Cheerleading Camp

This summer, for the first time, a cheerleading day camp will be available to Southeastern Massachusetts students who are interested in or participating in cheerleading and who live within commuting distance of the Greater New Bedford Area. The camp will be held at Camp Massasoit, a Y.M.C.A. camp in Mattapoisett, from August 29 to September 2. Its purpose is to provide interested youngsters with an opportunity for professional assistance and instruction within the financial limitations of students.

Members of the PATRIETTES, cheerleaders for the New England Patriots professional football team at Schaeffer Stadium in Foxboro, Mass. plus professional gymnasts from Flip City Gymnastics School, will serve as instructors. Basic skills will be taught to beginners and advanced techniques to the experienced. The director of the camp, Pat Shea, a member of the PATRIETTES squad for the past four years, teaches Physical Education at Dartmouth Middle School, coaches Dartmouth High School cheerleaders and, during the summers, is director of a girls' group at Camp Massasoit. Assistant directors are Dyan Fortes, also a cheerleader for the Patriots; and Chris Ainsley, coach for the New Bedford High School cheerleaders.

There will be 2 camp sessions. The first, August 29, 30 and 31, will be for youngsters age 10 to 14 and the second session, September 1 and 2, will be for high school students. Each camp day will begin at 9:00 A.M. and end at 4:00 P.M. Days will be divided into activity blocks. Both individual and group instruction will be provided for gymnastics training and for perfecting basic moves and skills. The "rules of the game" will be clarified in the knowledge session. Sideline cheers and pom pom routines will be taught. Trophies, awards and ribbons will be given for pep, spirit, loudness, performance, and originality. Each camper should plan to bring a bathing suit and towel because, for a change-of-pace activity,

APTUCXET TRADING POST
OBSERVES 350th ANNIVERSARY

The Aptucxet Trading Post, the "Cradle of American Commerce", where the Pilgrims drew up and signed the first known business contract in America, is this year observing its 350th anniversary.

In honor of "this significant event" in American history, the Bourne Historical Society has arranged to have medals struck in silver, bronze and pewter.

Back in 1627, the Plymouth Pilgrims built "a Store" on the Manomet River (now the western part of the Cape Cod Canal). They came from Plymouth to the Scusset River (now the eastern part of the canal), then crossed on the land to the Manomet River, to their trading post.

The Dutch from New Amsterdam (now New York) came up Buzzards Bay into the Manomet River to the trading post, bringing sugar, tobacco, and linen cloth.

The Indians of Cape Cod and the Wampanoag Federation came to trade their furs for the goods in the white man's store.

The present replica of the store was built and opened in 1930. It was this trading post -- known as the Birthplace of American Free Enterprise -- that wampum was first introduced as legal tender for business transactions.

The Aptucxet Trading Post is part of Bourne-Aptucxet Village, which also includes a working salt works, Indian Village, and Dutch Mill. The Village is open from April 19 - October 12, weekdays 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.; Sunday hours, April/May, September/October, 1-5 P.M.

Making salt by solar evaporation was big business on Cape Cod in the 19th century. In 1968, a replica of the salt works was built at the village. Water is drawn from the Cape Cod Canal, evaporated in two full-sized vats, and the salt thus produced is for sale at the village.

The Indian Village, built by the Bourne 4-H Club, is located near the ancient spring which supplied fresh water for the Indians and the Whites.

The Dutch windmill was brought from Holland by the American actor, Joseph Jefferson, and set up on the site of Buttermilk Bay. It was given to the Bourne Historical Society by the 3-M Corporation.

An attractive picnic area with a fine view of shipping on Cape Cod Canal is available. Nearby are an herb garden and bulbs and shrubs, gifts of the Aptucxet Garden Club, which also maintains the landscaping.

The evening of dance and music, entitled "Dancers Prepare and Pas de Deux", will close this summer's festival season on Friday, July 29, at 8 P.M. in the air-conditioned SMU auditorium.

Reviewer E. J. Dias called the earlier performance of the ballet artists "a high point" of the SMU Summer Festival.

Wrote Mr. Dias: "Ms. Balestracci and Korogodsky won standing ovations from the audience for the grace and remarkable agility with which they performed the two pas de deux... The two dancers work beautifully together in well-timed lifts, nimble leaps, and beautifully controlled movement. At the conclusion ....in a demonstration of admirable strength and absolute control, Korogodsky balances Ms. Balestracci on his hand and lifts her high above his head -- it is a memorable moment in choreography."

"I would like to emphasize," said Prof. Josef Cobert, artistic director of the Summer Festival, "that the July 29 performance is not a repeat of the earlier performance by Ms.
